Dear Sir

48 Thanks for yowes letter this morning. — I shall be very "proud" to have you as my guest.
The Antislavery Cause was my "first love"; even from the earliest childhood my sympathies were entitled in it. — I please to commune straight from Bedford with your son, to my house, where you shall be in every respect what gone there. — We are ^{on} route to London. — Do not defer Resol!

I can enter into your feelings, I am sure that an entire change is the best restoration. I never regained my tone after I lost my Mother for 10 years till I went to India, nor was I myself for 3 years after I lost my dear Anna when you remember at St. George's. I. till I went there again in '35.
So believe will be poured here into your wounded spirit!

hoping to see you at the end of May before we to return, yours very truly,

Henry Cushman

Thanks for your thoughtful letter
